MAGANDANG BALITA!

Ugnayang PCUP at Project HOPE, isasapormal na sa Nobyembre

Nalalapit na ang pagsasapormal ng ugnayan sa pagitan ng Presidential Commission for the Urban Poor (PCUP) at Project HOPE (Honest Opportunities for Philippine Entrepreneurs).

Ito ay matapos ang pagpupulong na naganap kahapon, Setyembre 12, sa punong tanggapan ng Komisyon sa lungsod Quezon na dinaluhan nina PCUP Executive Assistant Ms. Evita Pearl Jamon at PCUP Project & Policy Development Unit (PPDU) Head Ms. Yvelen Moraña kasama ang ilang ehekutibo ng Project HOPE na sina Executive Director Mr. Philip Wen Bombita at Finance Executive Ms. Dona Bella Anjao upang pagkasunduan ang magiging tungkulin ng bawat panig.

Ang PCUP ang tutukoy at mageendorso ng mga benepisyaryong karapat-dapat para sa livelihood program ng Project HOPE. Ia-assess naman ng Project HOPE ang mga benepisyaryong ie-endorso ng PCUP para sa kanilang livelihood program upang bigyan ng karampatang training at maalalayan din ang mga ito para masiguro na tatagal at magiging matagumpay ang kabuhayang ipagkakaloob sa kanila ng Project HOPE.

Matatandaan na nagkaroon ng exploratory meeting sa pagitan ng PCUP at Project HOPE Pebrero ngayong taon upang talakayin ang panukala nitong libreng Business Franchise para sa mga mapipiling benepisyaryo mula sa urban poor sector lalo't higit sa maralitang pamilya na walang kapasidad na bumuo ng sarili nilang kabuhayan.

Magkakaroon ng ceremonial signing ng Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) sa pagitan ng PCUP at Project HOPE sa darating na Nobyembre at isa lamang ito sa mga napipinto pang mga ugnayan sa ilalim ng pamamahala ni PCUP Chairperson at CEO, Undersecretary Elpidio R. Jordan, Jr. na naka-suporta pa rin sa poverty alleviation efforts ni Pangulong Marcos, Jr.

SAN JOSE DE BUENAVISTA, Antique – Some 130 Antiqueños whose livelihood were affected by the pandemic have been given to opportunity to launch their own business of selling rice online to help them in their financial recovery.

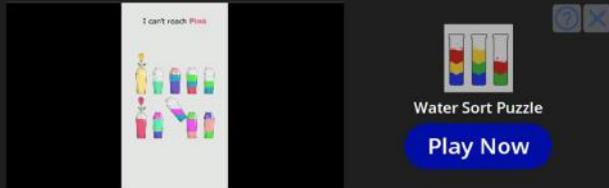

The Honest Opportunities for Philippine Entrepreneurs (HOPE) Foundation, in collaboration with the Antique provincial government through its Project HOPE, helped launch their online business.

Cherylyn Quanico, Local Economic Development and Investment Promotion officer of the provincial government, said on Friday that on June 21 the HOPE Foundation turned over the free business franchise to the identified beneficiaries, among them who are displaced overseas Filipino workers (OFWs), persons with disability (PWD), solo parents, students and even businessmen who went bankrupt due to Covid-19.

“The beneficiaries were initially provided with 50 sacks of rice that they could sell online,” Quanico said.

Implemented by the Public Employment Service Office and the City Social Welfare and Development Office in collaboration with other agencies, Project HOPE entitles each beneficiary to receive 21 business franchises which will be given in tranches, depending on the success rate.

The project forms part of Mayor John Dalipe's thrust on economic recovery and relief for residents hardest hit by the pandemic and other challenges.

The 186 families compose the first batch of beneficiaries who received the first 3 franchises – rice, e-loading, payment center.

The launching activity held at KCC Mall de Zamboanga in Gov Camins also gave the project partners the opportunity to introduce other business opportunities. The Bank of Philippine Islands (BPI) discussed the topic financial literacy, the BDO talked about MSME loan program while Ford Zamboanga presented the features
